

30 PRAYER PROMPTS

TO SAVE YOUR MARRIAGE

We trust these prayer prompts will give you a deep desire to begin or continue praying for your spouse, and truly intercede for your marriage. These 30 prayer prompts are quick, easy, printable, and a gentle reminder for you to keep praying, without distraction for your spouse. Allow these to guide you towards intimate fellowship with God, and intercession for your marriage! Our intention is that you will be able to focus on one each day of the month!

01

FOR THE HUSBAND

- For God to meet him where he's at
- For a desire for a deeper relationship and time with God
- For Godly male role models to speak into his life
- For a hedge of protection around his heart and mind
- For God to place his wife on his mind
- For God to remind him of his love for his wife
- For protection against the temptations of the world
- For the realization of anything that is drawing him away from God and his wife
- For the provision of daily and future needs
- For rest to combat the demands and stresses of life

Use the space below to write a prayer specifically for your husband:

03

FOR YOU AS A COUPLE

- For patience as you wait in this season of struggle
- For grace as you make changes in your life to prioritize your future
- For better communication
- For a willingness to learn to put each other first
- For God to restore in abundance what the enemy has stolen
- For kindness as you deal with each other
- For strength to confess areas of sin
- For wisdom in decision-making
- For forgiveness and a heart to continue to offer forgiveness to each other
- For God to use your marriage as an instrument of restoration for His Glory

Use the space below to write a prayer specifically for your marriage:

Father, in Jesus name we come before You and ask You to be present in our marriage. We lay aside the lies we have believed about each other, the hurts that we've allowed to manifest and held higher than the call and purpose You have for our marriage. Your word says that love covers all wrongs (Psalm 10:12) so, Father, if there is anything I am holding against my spouse, or myself, I ask that You would remind me of the endless forgiveness that You died to give me and help me extend that to my spouse. I ask, God, that You would soften and strengthen our marriage and restore it to a safe place, where we may find rest together in You. As we lean not on our own understanding, we concentrate our marriage to You, as an avenue to lead others into the lifegiving presence of the one True Love. Thank You, Father, that Your mercies are new every morning, and that You can rebuild in an instant, what the enemy took years to devour. Thank You that I will love my spouse selflessly, all the days of my life, and in making this commitment before You, I not only honor my spouse but You as well. In Jesus Name, Amen.